LAMANO
EXTRAVAGANCE OF PURITY

Lamano Artisans is a boutique hand-knit atelier overlooking Lake Trasimeno, where the purest cashmere is shaped slowly by human hands. Founded by Christian Fioroni and Cosimo Campana, the brand revives the ancient rhythm of Italian knit craftsmanship using rare fibers, vintage Coppo machines, and hand-finishing techniques. Each piece is created in select, intentionally limited editions and washed in the mineral-rich waters of the lake's surrounding area, awakening a natural softness that cannot be replicated industrially. Guided by the philosophy Extravagance of Purity, Lamano blends precision and emotion, heritage and innovation. The result is knitwear defined by tactility, purity, and quiet elegance. Handmade in Italy, made to endure — in form, in beauty, and in soul.

Lamano Artisans is an Italian hand-knit atelier overlooking Lake Trasimeno in Umbria, founded in 2025 by Christian Fioroni and Cosimo Campana. Guided by the philosophy “Extravagance of Purity”, the brand creates limited cashmere pieces through a deeply human process: hand-knitted on vintage Coppo machines, finished by hand, and shaped by time, water and material knowledge. Its three collections — The Lake Collection, The Thread Collection and The Stitch Collection — express tactility, purity and quiet elegance in Ultraselect Baby Cashmere, rare long-fiber cashmere and Vicuña.
